

Hey ____!

The 2020 elections are in 7 weeks (!!!!) Teens Resist put together a list of bios for candidates in close races, and I especially love ____; [insert reason optional].

I really want to hold myself accountable for getting involved. 2020 has been a focal point of our whole movement for so long. I don't want Election Day to come and go and wonder if there was something (anything!) I could have done to change the outcome. No matter what happens, it's all hands on deck, and no regrets.

Will you join my team?

Once you do, we can decide how long & how often we'll be calling/texting/etc. together, so we can create a little mini-community while we campaign.

Please let me know! I'm so excited to hear from you and to get started!
